It's the little things that make Christmas special

As Australia gets ready to celebrate Christmas, we know this year is less about extravagance and more about the little moments that help make it an unforgettable season.

Christmas comes with its own traditions that are different for everyone. For some it's the Christmas cracker jokes that make everybody cringe. For others, paper hats that are always too big or too small. Homemade tree decorations competing for space with treasures that have been in the family for years. And one cheeky guest who can't resist the first delicious slice of ham.

This year, it's the little things that make Christmas special. That's why we're helping you get your Woolies worth.

Welcome FROM THE PREMIER

There has always been something magical about Carols in the Domain. Children's faces light up with the wonder of Christmas, as families and friends come together for an annual tradition that spreads joy and good spirits.

As people across the state, and the country, sing as one, this year there's an extra reason to rejoice, with Carols in the Domain celebrating 40 years.

Congratulations and thank you to Woolworths Carols in the Domain for providing decades of magical memories for families across our state. I hope this evening creates many more that will be cherished for years to come.

Again, the NSW Government is also delighted to continue its support of Carols in the Domain in 2022.

To all who bring this spectacular event to life, and all who enjoy it, sing to your heart's content, and I wish you a very Merry Christmas!

The Hon. Dominic Perrottet MP, Premier of New South Wales

New Idea has thoroughly enjoyed putting together the Woolworths Carols in the Domain Songbook, celebrating 40 years of the beloved event. Inside, find chats with the talented performers, as well as our hosts, Sunrise's Natalie Barr and David Koch. And, of course, the Songbook, which includes the lyrics to all your favourite carols. Happy singing!

MERRY CHRISTMAS FROM WOOLWORTHS

As Today's Fresh Food People, we're excited to help Australians celebrate Christmas with fresh food. We are especially proud to continue our partnership with Woolworths Carols in the Domain, to help share the Christmas spirit and the little moments that make Christmas special.

I'd like to thank our frontline team in our stores and distribution centres, our drivers, support teams and supplier partners for helping to keep Australia fed through another challenging year.

Caring for Australian communities, suppliers, and farmers is at the heart of what makes us Today's Fresh Food People. That's why our OzHarvest Christmas Appeal has returned to help feed vulnerable families. With our customers, we're aiming to raise $3.5 million dollars which is the equivalent of seven million meals for Aussies in need. You can also support our native furry friends by purchasing our reindeer carrots or our new 'Wally the Wombat' cake.

We're committed to helping all our customers get their Woolies Worth. This includes holding the price from Christmas 2021 on a range of this year's Christmas classics, dropping the prices on 150 Christmas products and over 5000 specials every week! NATALIE DAVIS Managing Director, Woolworths Supermarkets Nat and Kochie are pros at hosting Woolworths Carols in the Domain.

ANOTHER JOLLY GOOD SHOW IS IN STORE

When it comes to the festive season, David 'Kochie' Koch knows exactly what he wants for Christmas.

"A decent sleep in," the Sunrise host, who has presented Channel Seven's breakfast show for two decades, tells New Idea with a chuckle. "It's the only time of year I stay up past 7.30pm like regular adults."

Kochie's co-host Natalie Barr, who clocks up her 20th year on the program this coming March, isn't too fussed about getting the extra shut-eye though.

In fact, thanks to her early-morning starts, there's one big perk Nat will get to enjoy when she heads to her family's beach house in her home state of Western Australia. "I'm always awake before everyone else, so I like to go for a nice walk along the beach and watch the beautiful sunrises," Nat says. "Nowhere in the world has beaches like WA."

But before she heads off, she and Kochie are again hosting Woolworths Carols in the Domain, which is celebrating its milestone 40th anniversary.

The event has become one of the Christmas traditions Kochie in particular looks forward to most.

"Early in December is all about going shopping, getting the perfect presents and all the preparation," he explains. "But Carols is over, the pair's thoughts turn to spending time with their loved ones. And this year, Kochie is excited he gets to showcase a true-blue Aussie Christmas.

In July, his youngest daughter Georgie tied the knot with German banker Alex Merkel. His new son-in-law and his parents will be joining the Koch clan for their Sydney celebrations.

"Our in-laws shared a photo the other day of their apartment in Berlin and it was covered in snow," Kochie shares. "They'll be in for a very different experience with lots of prawns, seafood and plenty of champagne."

'The night is a magical experience' is the official start of finally everyone getting into the spirit and just enjoying the fun in the season."

For Nat, the night is a "magical" experience.

"Having to wear all these beautiful dresses that have been handmade by talented designers – it's like getting married again. Then walking out onto the stage with a sea of 50,000 beaming faces and candles, it just doesn't get any better," she tells us.

As soon as the big night

The Merkels will also find themselves partaking in the TV host's favourite tradition.

"Everyone gets a pair of matching pyjamas on Christmas Eve. The first year I needed nine pairs, but this year I've bought 20," Kochie explains.

Meanwhile, Nat can't wait to indulge her sweet tooth with the one festive treat she waits all year for.

"Pavlova's the winner for me," she says, smiling.

SHARE THEIR FESTIVE PLANS

Lachie Gill

"This has been the craziest year! Since winning The Voice Australia, my life has been filled with so many amazing experiences and opportunities, some of which I could have only dreamed of. Christmas will be a chance to, not only see all my family and friends, but reflect and appreciate the year that was. I look forward to filling my belly with delicious food and spreading Christmas spirit with my nearest and dearest."

Mark Vincent

"What I'm most looking forward to this year, is spending the holidays with my entire family. Being part of an Italian family, food is a big part of our culture. For Christmas this year, two of my nonnas will be cooking every meal you can think of – from lasagna, veal schnitzel and many more foods that I love!"

Samantha Jade

"This year I am so excited to be with my family. I have had two Christmases away from Perth and I can't wait to feel the magic of Christmas with my people in my lounge room that I have spent most Christmases in since I was born. It's going to be really special!"

Silvia Colloca

"Christmas has always been my favourite time of the year. I tremble with the anticipation of the festivities to come, the baked goods in the oven and all those pretty presents under the Christmas tree. Every single year, no matter how old I am, I wait for Santa to arrive and for that unique magic to unfold. I am one of those people who has the Christmas tree up in November and starts planning the Christmas menu right after Halloween – so singing at Woolworths Carols in the Domain is a dream come true!"

Rhonda Burchmore

"Christmas is truly my favourite time of the year. I always spend it with family and friends and this year will be no exception. I'm currently touring with the Broadway musical Hairspray and will be in Adelaide. My hubby Nikolai and daughter Lexie will drive over to Adelaide to spend Christmas with me. It will be a very relaxed affair, starting with a big sleep in on Christmas morning, followed by lots of fabulous seafood, French champagne and then a late walk on the beach."

O Come, All Ye Faithful

O come, all ye faithful
Joyful and triumphant O come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem
Come and behold him
Born the King of Angels
O come let us adore him
O come let us adore him
O come let us adore him
Christ the Lord

Sing choirs of angels
Sing in exultation
Sing all ye citizens of Heaven above
Glory to God
In the highest
O come let us adore Him
O come let us adore Him
O come let us adore Him,
Christ the Lord

Yea, Lord, we greet Thee
Born this happy morning
Jesus, to Thee be glory given
Word of the Father
Now in flesh appearing
O come let us adore Him
O come let us adore Him
O come let us adore Him...
Christ the Lord
The Lord

The First Noel

The first Noel the angels did say
Was to certain poor shepherds in fields as they lay;
In fields where they lay keeping their sheep
On a cold winter's night that was so deep
Noel, Noel
Noel, Noel
Born is the King of Israel

They looked up and saw a star Shining in the East, beyond them far,
And to the Earth it gave great light,
And so it continued, both day and night
Noel, Noel
Noel, Noel
Born is the King of Israel

Then let us all with one accord
Sing praises to our Heav'nly Lord That hath made Heav'n and Earth of nought
And with his blood mankind hath bought
Noel, Noel
Noel, Noel

Hark the Herald Angels Sing

Hark! The herald angels sing
Glory to the newborn King
Peace on Earth and mercy mild
God and sinners reconciled
Joyful all ye nations rise
Join the triumph of the skies
With angelic host proclaim Christ is born in Bethlehem

Hark! The herald angels sing
Glory to the newborn King
Christ by highest Heaven adored
Christ, the everlasting Lord
Late in time behold him come
Offspring of a virgin's womb Veiled in flesh the Godhead see

Hail the King! The deity Pleased on Earth with us to dwell
Jesus, our Emmanuel
Hark! The herald angels sing
Glory to the newborn King Hail the Heav'n-born Prince of Peace

Hail the Son of Righteousness
Light and life to all he brings Risen with healing in his wings Mild he lays his glory by Born that we no more shall die
Born to raise us all from Earth
Born to give us second birth
Hark! The herald angels sing
Glory to the newborn King!

Joy to the World

Joy to the world, the Lord is come!
Let Earth receive her King;
Let every heart prepare Him room,
And Heaven and nature sing,
And Heaven and nature sing,
And Heaven, and Heaven, and nature sing

Joy to the world, the Saviour reigns!
Let men their songs employ;
While fields and floods, rocks, hills and plains
Repeat the sounding joy,
Repeat the sounding joy, Repeat, repeat, the sounding joy

He rules the world with truth and grace,
And makes the nations prove
The glories of His righteousness,
And wonders of His love,
And wonders of His love,
And wonders, wonders,
of His love

Joy to the World
the Lord
is come!

Joy!

The Holy City

Last night I lay a sleeping
There came a dream so fair,
I stood in old Jerusalem
Beside the temple there

I heard the children singing
And ever as they sang,
Me thought the voice of angels
From Heaven in answer rang
Me thought the voice of angels
From Heaven in answer rang
Jerusalem, Jerusalem!
Lift up you gates and sing,
Hosanna in the highest Hosanna to your King!

And once again the scene was changed
New earth there seemed to be,
I saw the Holy City
Beside the tideless sea

The light of God was on its streets
The gates were open wide,
And all who would might enter
And no-one was denied.
No need of moon or stars
by night,
Or sun to shine by day,
It was the new Jerusalem
That would not pass away

Jerusalem! Jerusalem
Sing for the night is o'er
Hosanna in the highest
Hosanna for evermore!
Hosanna in the highest
Hosanna for evermore!

Jingle Bells

Jingle bells, jingle bells,
jingle all the way
Oh what fun it is to ride in a one-horse open sleigh
Jingle bells, jingle bells,
jingle all the way
Oh what fun it is to ride in
a one-horse open sleigh

Dashing through the snow, in a one-horse open sleigh O'er the fields we go, laughing all the way Bells on bobtail ring, making spirits bright What fun it is to ride and sing a sleighing song tonight, Oh

Jingle bells, jingle bells,
jingle all the way
Oh what fun it is to ride in
a one-horse open sleigh
Jingle bells, jingle bells,
jingle all the way
Oh what fun it is to ride
in a one-horse open sleigh
